Advice to Students on Dress Code

- A hat is compulsory all year when outdoors.
- School uniforms may be ordered through the Spearwood Primary School P&C.
- Second hand uniforms are available.
- Parents are to be notified of the Dress Code on admission and after any changes are made.
- Compliance with the school dress code is a prerequisite to maintain the 'Good Standing' required to be involved in extracurricular activities including such things as: interschool sports events and excursions.

Modification to Dress Code

- Students who for religious, health or cultural reasons may need to modify the school dress code are required to make an appointment with the Principal to negotiate alternatives.
- Parents are required to substantiate the required modification.
- Staff will be informed of these students.
- It is highly desirable that Kindergarten students follow the Dress Code.

Sanctions for Non-compliance

Students not following the dress code will receive:

- Counselling from teaching staff on the benefits of a dress code and/or contact with parents.
- If a child is not wearing school colours, they may be offered a loan of school colours for the day, if available.
- A pass for an agreed length of time for dress modification may be issued by Principal.
- Where the Principal is of the opinion that the student does not comply with the Dress Code requirements, this may result in a loss of Good Standing. The Principal may exclude the student from any extra-curricular activities, in accordance with regulations supported by the Education Act. These include students participating in incursions, excursions, interschool sports events and some school based school activities.

Positive Rewards of Wearing the School Uniform

- Positive recognition by administration and teachers.
- The knowledge and pride the students have about belonging to Spearwood Primary School.
- Only children in dress code will be privileged in being invited to take messages or receive whole class awards at assemblies.
